

GIORGIO BURIGANA
BIO

I was born in Venice, and started my career in the Hospitality Industry and managed world class hotels and resorts for over 40 years – working in more than a dozen countries (including: Belgium, Italy, Australia, China, Thailand over four Continents.

My daughters grew up in East Lansing. I have been familiar with the area as I have visited often and decided to move here to be close to them and my grandchildren.

I am proud to be connected to the Italian American Club of Lansing and to help this group in maintaining our Italian tradition for our future generations.
